Blessings from Rabbi Mendel Cohen

Dear Governor and future Vice President Palin:

Our Talmud says elected officials are not elected by the people but rather they are elected by G-d through people (I am certain my friend Rabbi Yossi Greenberg in Alaska has acquainted you with the Talmud). May G-d continue to give you the strength to lead our country and maintain its preeminent super power status (because of its constant kindness) through these very turbulent times.

In the early 80's Chabad leader Rabbi Manachem Schneerson strongly said America must get off foreign oil. He said America is held hostage by the people of most of the Middle East. This prevents America from accomplishing its good throughout the world.

Rabbi Schneerson believed with all his heart that G-d's infinite energy source from which creation was created is manifest in the Sun. By understanding these processes of the sun, mankind will become free from the yoke of other nations.

May g-d give you the strength to do that which will be an incredible achievement for mankind and for America, helping make this world a better place.

With blessings in leading the entire world, may you come to know the source of G-d's infinite energy and the means by which man will harness this infinite energy. G-d's hand is everywhere including the creation of man which we just celebrated last week and the creation of energy for man's use.

Sincerely, with blessings,

Rabbi Mendy Cohen
